12. Negative personal references that indicate adverse or poor reflections of the household.

13. Household cannot pay full security deposit at move-in. Should applicants fail to meet screening criteria, they will be mailed a notice in writing indicating type of rejection. Applicants may contact Managing Agent’s office for explanation of rejection and/or submit new application for Wait List.

VAWA

VAWA protections cover tenants and assisted families, as defined under applicable program regulations. VAWA protections also cover applicants when they are applying for admission to a HUD-covered housing program. Refer to HUD Form 5380 Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence against Women Act

Eligibility

Eligibility Process:

Upon receipt of the application, a background and credit report will be pulled for all adults in the household. Once the initial credit and background screening is completed, eligible applicants will be contacted in writing to begin the application eligibility process. Applicants must respond within the specified time or their application will be canceled.

Applicants will be required to submit requested documentation in a timely manner. In order to be income eligible, third-party verifications are required to verify Applicant’s income, assets and landlord & personal references.

Applicants will be required to attend an eligibility interview. Once applications are approved by the Managing Agent, applicants will be notified of unit availability. At times when there are no vacancies, approved applicants must wait until a unit becomes available before being offered a unit.

Annual Recertification Requirements:

All residents must recertify annually. Proposed changes of household and student status must be immediately reported to Management. A request to add an additional household member(s) must be in writing and approved by Management as well as the Honolulu County Section 8 Program if applicable prior to a new member(s) moving into the unit.
